The doctrine of the four elements has existed since ancient times.

Fire, water, earth and air have a tremendous impact on human balance.

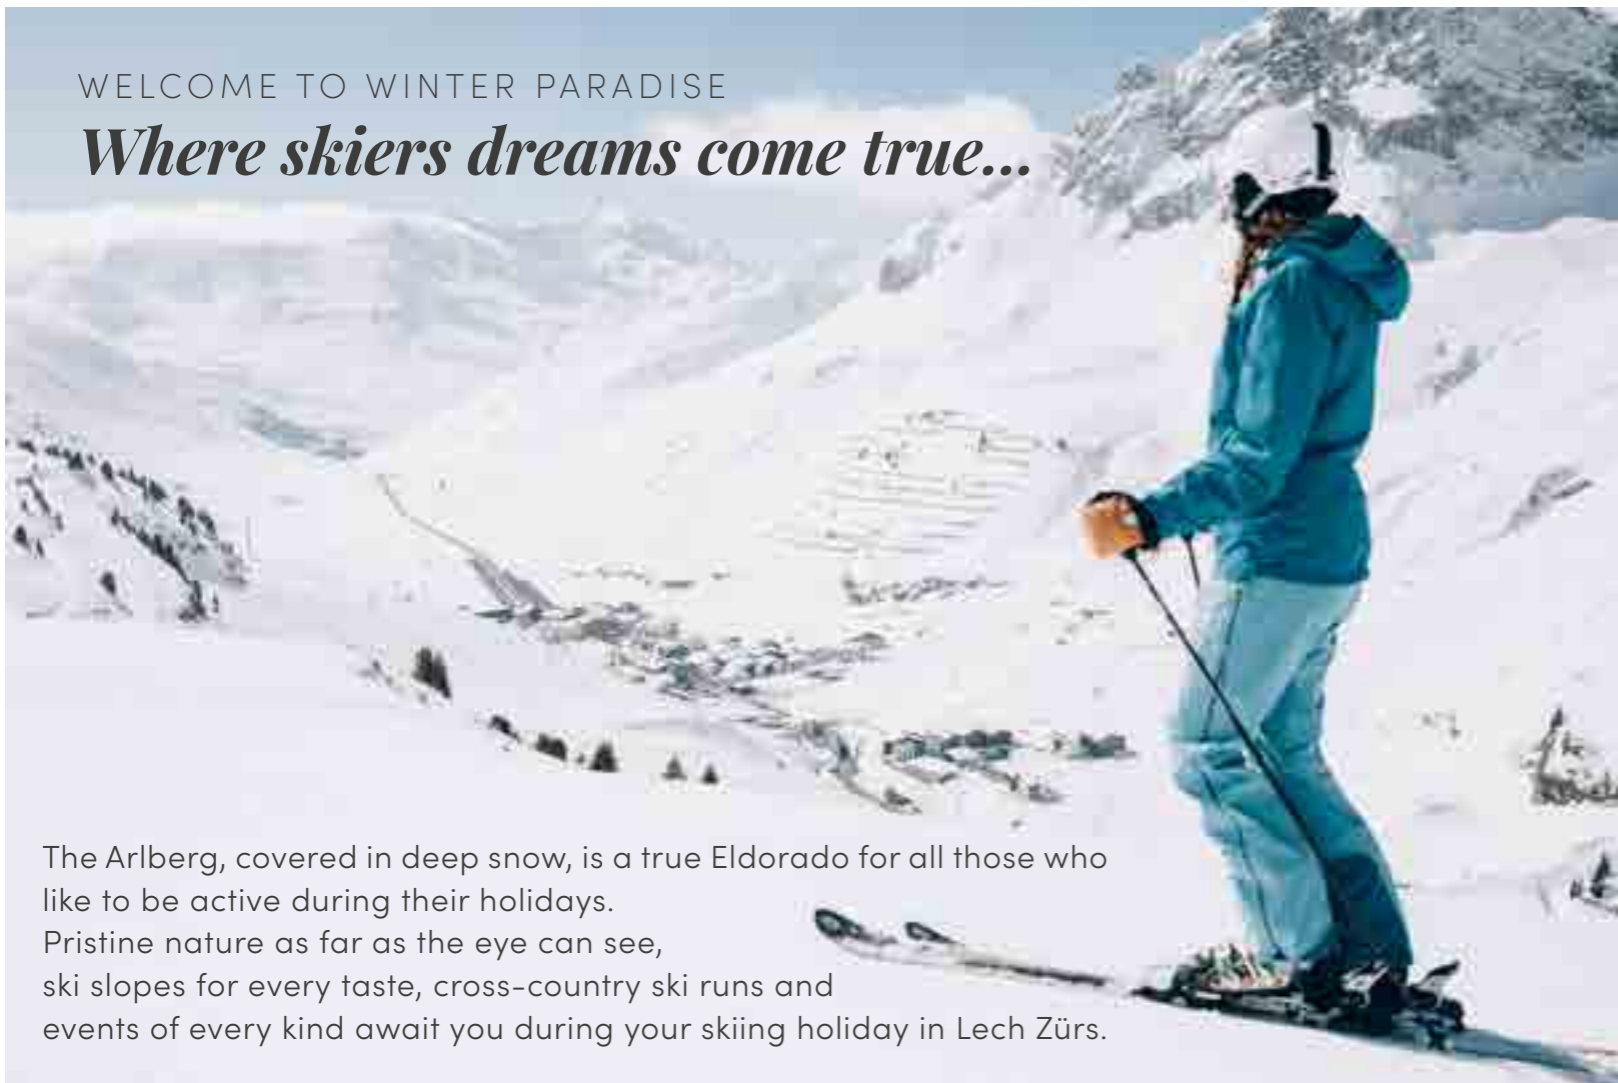

Fire stands for self-confidence and energy, it awakens zest for action and love of life.
Water is the source of all life. Water represents strength and refreshment.
Earth gives us peace and strength. Activate your senses and feel the energy of the earth.
Air embodies lightness and freedom. Fresh air invigorates the body. Breath in, breath out.

WELCOME TO WINTER PARADISE

Where skiers dreams come true...

The Arlberg, covered in deep snow, is a true Eldorado for all those who like to be active during their holidays. Pristine nature as far as the eye can see, ski slopes for every taste, cross-country ski runs and events of every kind await you during your skiing holiday in Lech Zürs.

The Arlberg boasts guaranteed snow from December to April, a variety of terrains and ski slopes of all kinds - this is how it captivates thousands of guests from near and far every year.

Here lies the cradle of alpine skiing. At the same time, however, the winter sports on offer are always at the height of the times, if not a shade ahead. "Ski Arlberg" welcomes ski and snowboard enthusiasts as Austria's largest connected ski area and the fifth largest in the world.

Especially among off-piste skiers, the Arlberg is a household name for everyone. Discover the diverse nature and special routes off the slopes - best recommended with a ski guide from Arlberg Alpin. Also find out about the popular heli-skiing - which is unique in Austria here at the Arlberg. An experience you will never forget. We are happy to help you with your booking.

Winter events at the Arlberg:

- Arlberg Vineyard 07.12.-17.12.2023
- Christmas Market in Lech 15.12.-22.12.2023
- The White Ring 13.01.2024
- Tanzcafé Arlberg 31.03.-14.04.2024

Heroes of the Night

So unimposing during the day, indispensable during the night: the snow groomers of the mountain cableways. When it gets quiet on the slopes and the skiers are on their way home, the working day begins for them.

DATA & FACTS

A total of 70 snow groomers are in operation in the Ski Arlberg ski area, to offer guests best slope conditions.

The drivers are true pros and pursue their craft with dedication and passion. Every hill, every bump, every amount of snow must be levelled out, flattened and made to look like a fine carpet.

On steep slopes, rope winches are used to protect the skiers - so for your own safety, it is very important that you observe the prescribed slope closures.

If nature does not provide enough snow, snow cannons are used to produce more. If there is too much snow, it is stored in so-called snow depots and can be worked back in when it is needed. This ensures that no snow is wasted.

Event tip: ARLBERG VINEYARD

Harmonious pleasure

Our sommeliers make every effort to advise you and help you make your choice.

With our offer of tasting wines by the glass with the menu, we give you the opportunity to try out new flavor combinations. It is important to us to ensure that wine and food harmonize and enhance each other.

Around the Gobelsburg Castle the vineyards extend – each with his own peculiarities, each with different soil and micro climatic conditions.

From the sun-drenched terraced locations on the Zöbinger Heiligenstein and on the Gaisberg to the extensive gardens around Gobelsburg, there is the opportunity to offer each grape variety the best possible development opportunity – according to its potential.

Schloss Gobelsburg MAKES HISTORY

In 1996, Florian Moosbrugger's brother Michael and his wife Eva Moosbrugger took over responsibility for the "Schloss Gobelsburg" winery, which is one of the oldest wineries in Austria and a member of the renowned Association of Austrian Traditional Wineries. The primary goal has always been to maintain and develop the wine heritage of Schloss Gobelsburg – with vineyards that are historically among the oldest in the country – and to pass it on to the next generation.

Year after year, the wines of Schloss Gobelsburg are presented with awards all over the world. Let our sommeliers advise you and taste the wonderful wines from Schloss Gobelsburg.

with Sandra and Florian Moosbrugger

A personal insight...

Interview with Sandra & Florian Moosbrugger - on the subject of sustainability, winter tourism, innovations on the Arlberg, developments in recent years and future prospects.

How has winter tourism changed over the last 10 years and what negative and positive developments have there been?

Winter tourism has altogether gained in versatility. In addition to the modernised and expanded offers on the slopes, the demand for alternative activities is increasing. In the past, pure skiing was the central theme - people went to the mountains to ski. In addition, the modern winter holiday is currently characterised by varied enjoyment and active experiences. Alpine lifestyle is the focus - in addition to decelerating offers in the snow, contemporary gastronomy concepts, innovative culinary offers and wellness at the highest level have become important pillars of a holiday which fulfils all wishes. The new trend: family holiday! Three generations and more at one table - no longer a rarity. This makes it all the more important to have a comprehensive offer that meets individual expectations - and exceeds them in a charming way. In an era of honest reviews, unadulterated images and a huge range on offer all over the world, no compromises are made. Simply EVERYTHING has to fit. And that is exactly our dedicated goal at the Hotel Post!

How do you feel about the media commotion regarding artificial snow, snowmaking, etc. in times of the energy crisis?

Additional snowmaking is a politically irritating topic which involves many aspects - and also opinions. What is clear is that the economic area is also a living space and that there is a strong economic necessity. Not only for the region itself - tourism is one of the strongest economic sectors in Austria. The fact that snow production is ecologically harmless and is constantly being developed within the framework of innovative concepts has been proven many times. The water is used without the addition of chemicals and returns to nature through the melting of the snow. Symbolic politics do not help anyone - measures which can be put into practice must be put in place to enable people to enjoy winter mountain sports in the future as well. To face the challenges of the current time courageously and to move forward with a pioneering spirit - the way the "Lech" success story has always developed will continue in the future.

What innovations or offers in winter - apart from skiing - make Lech or the Arlberg stand out?

For me, Lech clearly convinces with the versatility of the ski resort. The modern facilities, the innovative concepts and the forward-looking projects ensure that it will always be able to act as a pioneer. In addition to working together for the resort, the quality of the service chain is and always remains at the highest level. In addition to perfect accessibility, there is constant investment, renewal and refreshment in the areas of infrastructure, hotels, gastronomy and ski schools. The cooperation of the different people and the lively structures make future-proof and solution-oriented work possible.

In addition to skiing, various alternative offers are being developed and expanded. The winter hiking trails provide a great recreational factor in nature. Decelerating, gentle and healthy - ideal at a time which seems to be getting faster and faster.

Topic sustainability and ecological footprint: How do you at the Hotel Gasthof Post address this issue and what developments are taking place in the region in this regard?

The topics of sustainability and environmental protection have been with us for a long time and have become a matter of course in our concepts. As concretely implemented measures, this means in detail for us and in the village:

- Participation in the biomass heating plant being built by the municipality
- Reduction of plastic waste in the hotel
- Products from own hunting and farming
- Increased focus on the circular economy, joint projects with the municipality
- Construction of several hydroelectric power plants by the municipality

This topic requires dynamic concepts and spontaneous decisions - we dedicate ourselves to this on a regular basis and are always working on new steps and projects for a strong, healthy and green future.

In which direction do you believe ski tourism will develop? Where do you see ski tourism in 10 years?

The world is getting smaller - and with this easy overcoming of great distances, new markets will be addressed. Skiing is something that excites people. In the future, probably also increasingly from even more distant countries.

With global warming - for whatever reason - the seasons will change. I expect a concentration on large ski resorts in the high mountains. Lech lies at an altitude of over 1,400 metres, the Ski Arlberg ski area goes up to 2,806 metres. These are conditions which will make sound winter tourism possible for many decades to come.

You have planned major conversion work, are there any insights into this project that you can already share with us? Does the topic of sustainability also play a role here?

Of course, the topic of sustainability will also accompany us in this conversion. The laundry is being completely rebuilt.

The focus is on maximising the energy efficiency of the building and optimising the work processes. In addition to the now automated fine-tuning of the required cleaning agents, it was important to us to create efficient and comfortable conditions for our employees. Another step towards sustainability has been taken - we are very much looking forward to the upcoming projects in this area!
